Re: Mr. Michael Segal

Dear Mr. Breuer:

This responds to the letter to me dated October 12, 2010, from Mythili Raman, your Principal Deputy Assistant Attorney General and Chief of Staff. Ms. Raman dismisses our concerns by stating that these issues are currently the subject of litigation before the Seventh Circuit.

That is incorrect. The issues we have raised regard prosecutorial misconduct by the United States Attorney's Office in Chicago that has caused a grave injustice to Mr. Segal. Those issues are not currently before the Seventh Circuit. Additionally, it is meaningless to suggest that Mr. Segal should have to rely for relief on the very office that engaged in the misconduct against him.

We request that you reconsider our concerns, as laid out in my letter to you of June 8, 2010, a copy of which is attached, and provide us with an opportunity to discuss this matter more fully with you or an appropriate member of your staff. In addition, we request that our concerns be submitted to the Office of Professional Responsibility for consideration.

Sincerely,

Stanley M. Brand
